What should I bring to a food pantry?
Typically you will receive a variety of fresh produce, dairy, protein and shelf-stable products. Food items vary each month and generally supply a minimum of 3-5 days worth of food.

What does a food pantry collect from me?
Some of our pantries participate in a program called Link2Feed, a database used for a more in-depth intake process, but providing this additional information is completely optional for clients.

How often can I get food?
Each pantry is different, but some pantries request that you come for food only one time per month.

What and how much do you get in a food box?
Food items vary each month and generally supply a minimum of 3-5 days worth of food.

Questions or concerns? Please call Marion Polk Food Share at (503)581-3855 and ask for Agency Relations.

Can someone else pick up food for me?
All of our pantries accept a form called the Authorized Representative Form. This form can be completed prior to sending someone to receive a food box on your behalf or you can pick the form up at your next pantry visit. The form is available at: www.marionpolkfoodshare.org/get-help/
