Please keep these things in mind when visiting a pantry:

Do I qualify for food?

You are eligible for a food box if you meet the income guidelines shown below or if you currently receive: SNAP, WIC, TANF (Temporary Assistance for Needy Families), Free & Reduced Lunch Program, SSDI (Social Security Disability Income), SSI (Supplemental Security Income), and LIHEAP (Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program).

USDA Commodity Income Eligibility Guidelines 2020
(to be eligible to receive a food box)

Household Size	Monthly	Annual
1	$ 3,190	$38,280
2	$ 4,310	$51,720
3	$ 5,430	$65,160
4	$ 6,550	$78,600
5	$ 7,670	$92,040
6	$ 8,790	$105,480
7	$ 9,910	$118,920
8	$ 11,030	$132,360

What should I bring to a food pantry?

You do not need to bring anything but yourself to a pantry. You do not need to bring any form of ID or proof of income, address, or citizenship to receive services.

Can someone else pick up food for me?

All of our pantries accept a form called the Authorized Representative Form. This form can be completed prior to sending someone to receive a food box on your behalf or you can pick the form up at your next pantry visit. The form is available at: www.marionpolkfoodshare.org/get-help/

What does a food pantry collect from me?

A food pantry only has to collect your name, address, and number of people in your household. Any additional info is optional, but not required to get food. Some of our pantries participate in a program called Link2Feed, a database used for a more in-depth intake process, but providing this additional information is completely optional for clients.

How often can I get food?

Each pantry is different, but some pantries request that you come for food only one time per month.

What and how much do you get in a food box?

Typically you will receive a variety of fresh produce, dairy, protein and shelf-stable products. Food items vary each month and generally supply a minimum of 3-5 days worth of food.

Questions or concerns? Please call Marion Polk Food Share at (503)581-3855 and ask for Agency Relations.
